

The Cannery Lodge

Your Home On The River

Comprehensive Campus Environment

Our campus has been utilized for its multimodal access throughout its 100-year history as a fish cannery, by Russian fur traders, and the indigenous Native population before that. Poised at the mouth of the Kenai River, with direct marine and highway access, a helipad onsite, and an airport mere minutes away, PRL's proven record of excellence in planning and project support combined with the site's history of logistical efficiency creates the capacity to support clients' projects throughout the Kenai Peninsula, Cook Inlet, Southcentral Alaska and beyond. All from a secure campus that has been renovated to celebrate and preserve the site's historic character and natural beauty, infused with modern amenities and cutting-edge technological capabilities.

Welcome to The Cannery Lodge

The convergence of tradition and technology, location and innovation, elegance and efficiency marks the divergence from conventional to incomparable.

Welcome to The Cannery Lodge, PRL Logistics' lodging and project support services hub on the Kenai River, situated within the historic Kenai Ward's Cove Cannery site. Staying at The Cannery Lodge puts you an easy drive away from the industrial hub of the Kenai Peninsula, but in luxury accommodations you won't find anywhere else on the peninsula.

Comprehensive Logistics Services

Highway Access

The Cannery Lodge is located off Kalifornsky Beach Road in Kenai, a connecting artery to the Kenai Spur Highway, Sterling Highway, Seward Highway, and the entirety of Alaska's road system beyond. If it can go via wheels, we can help you send or receive anything you might need.

Helicopter Access

Private heated and lighted, 4-season helicopter pad on campus with adjacent Pilot house for communication with Kenai Municipal Airport Tower. Additionally, Kenai Municipal Airport is a short 10-minute drive from the campus.

Marine Access

A commercially sized tidewater dock at the Cannery facility provides an onsite link into the mouth of the Kenai River, Cook Inlet, and beyond. In addition, PRL has a private boat launch and floating dock facilities at our Campus.

Passenger Shuttle Service

Passenger shuttle services are available for lodge guests between Kenai, Nikiski, Soldotna, and the lodge. Other arrangements for shuttle services can be made by special request.

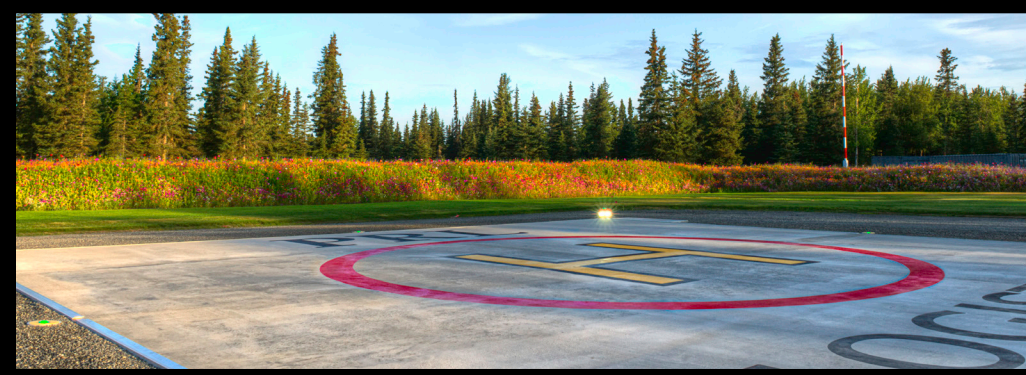

Project Services

Plan and facilitate your next project with the leaders in remote Alaska operations. PRL Logistics supports operations in even the most challenging locations and conditions across Alaska and beyond. You do the work you do best and we'll take care of the rest.

Marine Access

Our marine operations and shore-based services provide vessel mooring, resupply logistics, fueling arrangements, and vessel storage with access from the lower Kenai River in Tidewater to Cook Inlet. PRL's Marine Ops are comprised of a commercial fixed dock facility, a newly constructed reinforced concrete boat launch, and a floating dock with a 100+ ft face; all with electricity and LED commercial lighting. PRL's floating dock is fully functional in minus and seasonal high tides.

Helipad

Owned and operated by PRL Logistics the helipad is a first class, heated and lighted pad operational 24/7, 365 days per year. Pilot break room adjacent to the pad with sit down dining, pre-packaged meal options, and sleeping accommodations on campus.

Lodging

Rooms are tastefully designed to incorporate the history and character of the cannery site, including granite windowsills and corrugated metal wainscoting repurposed from materials original to the historic cannery campus. Daily, weekly, monthly, and extended stay rooms available. Room configurations to accommodate your needs up to two bedroom, three bath, with a full kitchen, river and inlet views, outdoor firepits and common areas, flat screen TV's, high speed internet, and personal coffee makers.

Warehousing & Expediting

Let us support your expediting, warehousing, on-site materials management, and laydown storage needs in the Cook Inlet. Through our parent company, PRL Logistics, The Cannery Lodge and our combined 24-acre campus can facilitate all of your material expediting, cargo and freight transportation from anywhere in the world to your Cook Inlet destination. With innovative online tracking and reporting, PRL Logistics and The Cannery Lodge can provide you safe, reliable, and cost effective care of your supply chain.

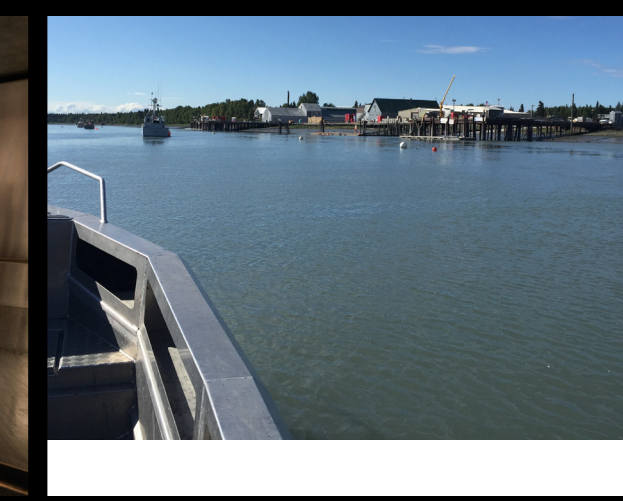

Concierge & Shuttle Services

The friendly on-site staff will cater to your needs whether it is providing shuttle services from the Kenai airport, planning a special event, guest laundry services, on-site recreation, or pointing you to the best places to explore the peninsula. Our luxury accommodations go the extra mile to ensure your stay is as comfortable as possible.

Food & Catering Services

Just because you're working doesn't mean your meals should be a chore to eat. Our full-service kitchen and in-house chef can cater to your tastes and schedule, so food you'll crave is available when convenient to your schedule. Menu options from 7-course catered meals, camp-style meal plans, boxed-lunch catering, as well as off-site food services.

Business & Meeting Center

Schedule your meetings, conferences, or training at The Cannery Lodge! We have high speed fiber optic wireless internet broadcasted throughout the campus, which allows us to use the latest technology with video conferencing capabilities, wireless connectivity for your audio-visual presentations, and speakerphones with multiline conferencing. Holding a private meeting? Our meeting areas are private and secure with large flat screen monitors for your presentations or efficient collaboration with your team. Additionally, touch screen PC's, and PA systems with wireless microphones are also available. Optional catering and spirit services are available and prepared by our on-site staff.

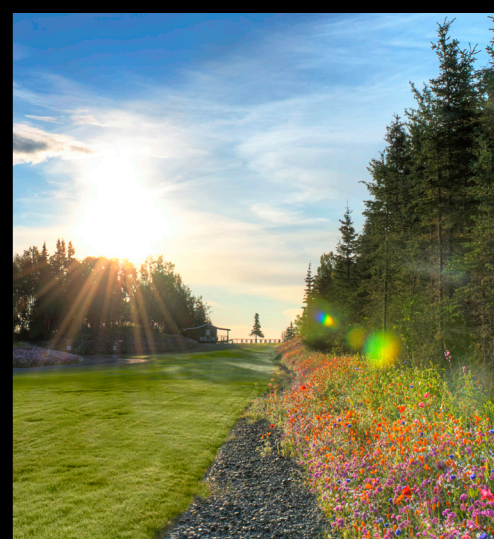

Event Venues

Plan your special event at one of our world-class venues! Event space is available for many different party sizes, including our beautiful outdoor venue on The Tidewater Stage.

Full Bar

With special requests, The Cannery Lodge is equipped with a full bar to host your events or help you wind down at the end of the day. Cheers!
